Q1	Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow: There was once a farmer who worked tirelessly on his land. Every day from dawn to dusk, he would plow, sow, and tend to his crops, hoping for a bountiful harvest. His hard work paid off, and he became known as the most successful farmer in the region. One year, the rains failed, and the crops withered under the scorching sun. The farmer was devastated, but he did not give up. He continued to care for his land, saving every drop of water he could. His neighbors, seeing his determination, began to mock him. "Why do you bother?" they asked. "The crops are gone, and there will be no harvest this year." The farmer simply smiled and replied, "As long as I have my land, there is hope." The following year, the rains returned, and the farmer's fields flourished once again, proving his perseverance was not in vain. A) Arrange the following events in proper sequence: .....The farmer continued to care for his land despite his neighbors' mockery,.
